Eureka-Climax Mining Company

Offers a Limited Amount of Treasury Stock at 15 Cents per Share.

Capital stock, 1,000,000 shares; fully paid and non-assessable. Par Value 15 cents. Treasury stock, 500,000 shares. The company owns the Deadbroke, New Year and Dugout Mines, approximately 70 acres. These mines have produced over $100,000 worth of rich ore. They are located on Prospect Mountain, the "high-grade" section of the Eureka Mining Dist.

While the Eureka-Croesus Mining company as such owns no interest in the Eureka-Climax Mining company, those who own the controlling interest in the Eureka-Croesus are largely interested in the Eureka-Climax, and all of its mining operations will be conducted by the technical staff of the Eureka-Croesus. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Eureka-Climax Mining company is Assistant Secretary and Treasurer of the Eureka-Croesus, under whose supervision the accounts and books of the company will be kept, in the office of the Eureka-Croesus Mining Company at Eureka.

Eugene Davis of the Eureka-Croesus Mining company has taken a large interest in the Eureka-Climax and will give it the same energy and push that has made possible the rapid development of the Eureka-Croesus properties.

The New Year and Deadbroke properties of the Eureka-Climax Company adjoins the holdings of the famous Diamond mine, one of the largest producers and shippers of high grade ore in Eureka. Work will start at once on the Deadbroke. The Stock will be listed on the San Francisco Stock Exchange.
